

Article V Section 2

- (D) ~~Senate Nominating Committee. Four faculty members elected by the Faculty Senate from the~~ Faculty Senate shall elect six members of the faculty- at-large for to serve staggered three-year terms and the President shall appoint three members. serve with three presidential appointees as a nominating committee for the, and the Committee shall be available to the President for recommendations for Presidential Committees. The Committee shall elect its chair. The Committee shall nominate, for the Faculty Senate's elections, members of all Senate Policy Councils and Committees and Joint Committees. Upon the President's request, the Committee shall make recommendations for presidential appointments. The Chair is elected by the Committee. For nominations, In discharging its duties this the Committee shall consider diverse representation by faculty drawn from the entire University at from all appropriate ranks and with special qualifications where required. the selection of highly qualified faculty members where specific expertise is required; A major goal is to foster a faculty fully committed to the service and the development of a fully engaged faculty, dedicated to service as a crucial third component of its teaching, research and service mission.*