

RESPONDING TO CAMPUS CRISIS

UF | Division of
Student Affairs
UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

Division of Student Affairs

CRISIS RESPONSE TEAM

Goals of the Crisis Response Team

- Coordinate the University's response to student emergencies;
- Offer counseling, guidance, and support
- To use incidents (when appropriate) as “teachable moments”

Definition of a Student Emergency

Life-threatening or serious situation involving UF Students

1. Death of a Student (on or off campus)
2. Attempted Suicide
3. Life Threatening Injury/Illness
4. Sexual Assault
5. Mental Health Crisis
6. Drug/Alcohol Overdose
7. Campus Disturbance/Riot
8. Contacting Students in Cases of Family Emergency
9. Fire/Explosion with Injuries or Significant Damage
10. Natural Disasters
11. Infectious disease
12. International situations

CRT Activation

UNIVERSITY POLICE DISPATCH

392-1111

ON-CALL PERSONNEL

Dean of Students Office

- Assistant Deans of Students
- Dr. Mary Kay Schneider, Senior Assoc. Dean of Students
- Dr. Paige Crandall, Associate Dean of Students
- Dr. Gene Zdziarski, Assistant VP & Dean of Students

CRT Membership

- Counseling Center
- Dean of Students Office
- General Counsel
- Housing & Residence Education
- International Center
- News & Public Affairs
- Provost's Office
- Reitz Union (Student Activities)
- Student Health Care Center
- Student Mental Health Care
- University Athletic Assoc.
- University Police Dept
- Alachua Co. Crisis Center
- Campus Ministry Cooperative
- Gainesville Police Dept.
- SFCC

Troubled or Disruptive Students

GETTING HELP

UF | Division of
Student Affairs
UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

Campus Threat Assessment Team

- Dean of Students Office
- University Police Department
- Student Judicial Affairs
- Housing & Residence Education
- Counseling Center

Others as needed

Disruptive vs. Troubled

- Disruptive Student

A student whose conduct is disruptive or dangerous, verbal or physical threats, active threats of suicide and resistant to getting help.

- Troubled Student

A student who is troubled, confused, very sad, highly anxious, irritable, lacks in motivation and or concentration, demonstrating bizarre behavior or thinking about suicide

Getting Help

Disruptive Student

Potential Harm to Self or Others
UPD

Then

Administrative/Judicial
Dean of Students

Consultation or Emergency
Counseling
Counseling Center
Student Mental Health

Troubled Student

Consultation or Questions
Counseling Center
Student Mental Health

Administrative/Judicial
Dean of Students

Academic Status
Assoc. Dean –
College
Department Chair

Faculty & Staff 911 Guide

FACULTY & STAFF "911" GUIDE HELPING STUDENTS IN DISTRESS

Students in Distress

The Division of Student Affairs has developed this informational guide to aid faculty and staff in assisting students that are experiencing difficulties.

Emergency	911
University Police Department	392-1111
Dean of Students Office	392-1261
Counseling Center	392-1575
Student Health Care Center	392-1161
Ombudsman Office	392-1308
Victim Services	392-5648
Alcohol & Other Drug Programs	392-1161, x4281
Housing & Residence Education	392-2161

If you are dealing with students in distress:

- Be aware of the location of the nearest telephone, whether it is within the building or a personal cell phone.
- If you are concerned for your safety or that of others, call 911 immediately.
- If the student is causing a disruption to the classroom or office environment but does not pose a threat:
 - discuss the situation with the student to address the inappropriate behavior.
 - ask the student to leave the room.

If in doubt, call the UF Police Department!

Disruptive Student

A student whose conduct is disruptive or dangerous, verbal or physical threats, active threats of suicide and resisting help.

Potential Harm to Self or Others

On Campus UPD 392-1111
Off Campus GPD or ASO - 911

Then

Administrative/Judicial

Dean of Students Office 392-1261
After Office Hours:
Request Emergency Dean 392-1111

Consultation or Emergency Counseling

Counseling Center 392-1575
Student Mental Health 392-1171

Troubled Student

A student who is troubled, confused, very sad, highly anxious, irritable, lacks in motivation and/or concentration, demonstrating bizarre behavior or thinking about suicide.

Consultation or Questions

Counseling Center 392-1575
Student Mental Health 392-1171

Administrative/Judicial

Dean of Students Office 392-1261

Academic Status

Assoc. Dean - College
Department Chair or Program Coord.