UF Constitution
Proposed Article VI. Section 9
Organizational Units of the University

July 1, 2004

Section 9. ACADEMIC & PROFESSIONAL ASSEMBLY – The Academic & Professional Assembly (APAssembly) shall be the organizational representative of all former Administrative & Professional (A&P) career professionals (identified as TEAMS A employees in the Technical, Executive, Administrative and Managerial Support pay plan), and faculty holding titles not represented in the Faculty Senate. The purpose of the APAssembly is to promote university representation, recognition, professional networking, and university and community service opportunities for its members.
