

Given the sharp increases in fuel costs and the impending budget cuts, the IC recommends that the Senate encourage each unit to form a Green Team whose initial focus should be on reducing energy costs for each building.