The council discussed the draft sabbatical leave policy Saeed Khan created. The council will use the term sabbatical and professional development leave. The council also felt that at least half of the sabbatical and professional development leave committee should be elected.

The philosophy of the plan should be included in the introduction.

Khan will make the suggested changes and resend the proposal to the council. The council plans to bring the proposal to the Senate and, if approved, ask that colleges develop appropriate policies within six months of approval.

Tom Walsh discussed compliance issues with the council.
