

Constitution

Article VI Organizational Units

Section 1

Between paragraphs C and D

Organizational units may have bylaws (or similar governing documents) that implement the principles of shared governance. Such bylaws ( or sim gove docs) shall be governed and subordinate to the Florida law, the policies and directives of the Florida Board Governors, and the University of Florida Board of Trustees, University of Florida regulations, the provisions of this Constitution and the Senate Bylaws, and the Collective Bargaining Agreement for those faculty and staff in the bargaining unit.