ORGANIZATIONAL UNITS OF THE UNIVERSITY

Section 2. THE COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS-

- (A) A college shall be a unit of the University organized to conduct curricula of study, ~~and~~ research, and service; and to grant degrees.
1. Subject to the approval of the Faculty Senate, the President and the Board of Trustees, the faculty of a college, or appropriate committees thereof, shall exercise control over the academic affairs of the college. The faculty of the college shall establish requirements of the college for entrance and for graduation, and the form of degrees to be conferred. It shall determine the arrangement and content of the curricula.
 2. The faculty of a college shall consist of (a) all faculty members in the departments and units ~~which that~~ belong to the college; ~~and (b)~~ the faculty paid by another college but teaching regularly in the college as part of their duties, when so appointed by specific action of the deans concerned; (c) the deans, associate deans and assistant deans of the college; ~~and (d)~~ the President of the University as an ~~ex-~~officio member.
 3. The chief executive and administrative officer of the Graduate School; and of each college shall be a dean, who may at the same time be a professor in one of the departments of the college. The dean shall be appointed by the President. In making this appointment, the President shall give consideration to the opinion of the faculty of the college concerned by consultation with a special committee of at least three faculty members elected by the faculty of the college. The dean shall be responsible to the President for the administration of the college and shall be the agent of the faculty for the execution of educational policy.
- (B) A school, except for the Graduate School, shall be a unit subordinate to a college organized for a special program of studies. The administrative officer of a school shall be a director, who may at the same time be a professor in one of the departments of the school. The director shall be nominated by the dean of the college and approved by the President. In making this nomination, the dean shall give consideration to the opinion of the faculty of the school concerned by consultation with a special committee of at least three faculty members elected by the faculty of the school. The director shall be subject to the administrative supervision of the dean of the college in which the school is located.

- (C) Because the college is the unit of the University organized to conduct curricula of study, research, and service, and to grant degrees, ~~to conduct curricula of study and research and to grant degrees,~~ periodic evaluations of each college shall be conducted in accordance with procedures adopted by the Senate.

Section 3. THE DEPARTMENTS- The department shall be the fundamental unit of academic and administrative organization within the University. ~~Departments shall be either professional functions departments or teaching and research departments. For purposes of organization and budget, each teaching and research department shall be assigned to one and only one college.~~

(A) The department shall be a unit of the University organized to conduct curricula of study, research, and service.

~~(AB)~~ The members of a department shall consist of all faculty members in the departmental budget, and other persons who teach or do research in the department and are accepted by the vote of the departmental faculty.

~~(BC)~~ The program of a ~~teaching and research~~ department shall be conducted by the departmental faculty through a chair, who shall have general responsibility for the activities of the department.

~~(CD)~~ The chair shall be nominated by the dean(s) of the college(s) after formal consultation with a committee of the department selected by its tenured members and after consultation with others in related fields outside the department. The nominations shall be forwarded to the President for approval. In those instances where the nominee of the dean(s) of the college(s) is not concurred in by the departmental committee, that committee's dissenting report should be forwarded to the President along with the nomination made by the dean(s).

~~(DE)~~ Because the department is the fundamental unit of academic and administrative organization within the University, periodic evaluations of each department shall be conducted.
